'THE WITCHING HOUR' A BIG DRAMA WITH A POWER TO MAKE ONE THINK

"The Players" Production One of Best Offerings of Present Season in Honolulu

THE CAST.

"Uncle" Harvey, Mr. Geo. Berrell
Jack Brookfield, Mr. Guy Hittner
Lewis Ellinger, Mr. Frank Bonner
Tom Denning, Mr. Jack Belgrave
Mrs. Alice Campbell, Jack's sister Miss Olga Gray
Helen Whipple, Clay's mother Miss Florence Oakley
Viola Campbell, daughter of Alice Miss Inez Ragan
Clay Whipple, Mr. Jay Hanna
Frank Hardmuth, Asst. District Attorney, Mr. Harold Blyden Judge Prentice
U. S. Supreme Court
Mr. George Webb
Judge Henderson
U. S. Supreme Court
Mr. Jack Belgrave
Tom Judge Prentice's servant
Mr. Percy Pryor
Col. Bagley, a lawyer
Mr. Wm. Bennett

"A psychological drama" is the announcement made on the program in the introduction of "The Witching Hour" to Honolulu audiences by George Webb and "The Players." And psychological it is, delving into mental telepathy, auto-suggestion and the spiritualistic—almost in a manner similar to "The Return of Peter Grim" that great masterpiece as portrayed by David Warfield. However, "The Witching Hour" handles the question from a "1914 standpoint," whereas the Warfield offering is a quaint and homely old Scotch story.
In the production by "The Players" the last night the keynote of the drama is a murder, induced through the fear of a cat's eye jewel, which fear is inherited by a youth endowed with but small will-power and numerous bad habits.

Love and romance are strongly interwoven throughout the four acts, all of which are ably handled by "The Players," being the best offering of this organization since its opening production, "The Common Law."
"The Witching Hour" is a splendid demonstration of the power of a strong over a weaker mind. It seeks to teach the possibility of mind control at a great distance, introducing numerous lines portraying incidents in support of this theory. It is a drama that pleases in every respect.
It provides an elegant evening's entertainment, being peppered with good, strong comedy, and at the same time it makes the auditor think—a quality lacking in so many of the present day dramatic offerings.
"The Witching Hour" is replete with good qualities, not the least of which is the many opportunities it affords the different members of the cast to "make good." It is not a drama builded for a leading man or a leading woman. Every member of the cast is "given a chance" and every member of "The Players" takes advantage of the opportunity. Each handles his or her assigned part in excellent shape, all working together in such fine style as to give to last night's—the opening performance—a finished touch, without the rough edges that have been so prominent at previous "first performances" of this company, and, in fact, are usually prominent with all stock offerings, especially of the "two a week" variety.

Miss Florence Oakley, as the mother of the boy who has committed murder under the influence of the dreaded cat's eye is charming, and in her scene with Judge Prentice, a childhood's sweetheart of her mother, shows strong dramatic ability. Also, as a widow, seriously in love with a former sweetheart, she falls to overdo the part. Miss Oakley is particularly good in "The Witching Hour." George Webb as Judge Prentice, as usual, is almost perfect in his part.
As a polished, white-headed old Kentuckian, who has been appointed to the U. S. supreme court, he is splendid. This is something different to anything Mr. Webb has previously written and is merely another proof of his versatility as an actor. He handles a second lead and gets everything possible out of it.

Guy Hittner, as Jack Brookfield, the leading role of the drama, does the best acting of anything he has undertaken in Honolulu. As the professional "on the square" gambler, who gives up his lucrative business when Judge Prentice convinces him that he is endowed with a hypnotic power and mind control, and endeavors to right any wrong with which he can connect himself, he rises to the occasion perfectly. Cast for a hard part, with a great many lines, Mr. Hittner fills the bill.

Miss Inez Ragan, as the girlish sweetheart of Clay Whipple, the youthful murderer, is good, as is Jay Hanna in the part of Whipple. Miss Olga Gray as Jack's sister is very acceptable, while Frank Bonner and Harold Blyden fill their respective parts well.
Jack Belgrave doubles, in the first act making a good "drunk," and later a dignified jurist. Percy Pryor and Wm. Bennett appear on the stage, almost minus speaking parts, and are good with the exception that the latter has a contorted idea of the garb of Col. Bagley, a lawyer of Louisville, Kentucky, being attired more on the order of a member of the National Guard of Hawaii, or the National Guard of the Philippines— if there was such an organization. Attorneys in Kentucky, Mr. Bennett, dress about the same as anywhere else.
Regimentals are not the correct mode in court.
"The Witching Hour" will be the offering again tonight and tomorrow night. It's a big drama, with a big thought.

NEW CHURCH LAW DISCUSSED LAST NIGHT BY LEAGUE

At a meeting last night of the members of the Men's League of St. Andrew's cathedral, a committee consisting of L. Tenney Peck, John Ef-finger and A. G. Smith was appointed to represent the club at the annual meeting of the church which convenes next Tuesday. Among other matters of business, there was considerable discussion on "Canon No. 50 of Provinces," a recently inaugurated church law which divides the Episcopal churches in America into eight provinces. Each province handles its own problems, and under the law Hawaii is in the eighth province with the Pacific coast states, Alaska and the Philippines.

G. H. Buttolph, A. D. Larnach, R.
B. Anderson, W. A. Hall and Thomas Sharp were appointed a committee to provide ways and means for raising funds for bringing the island clergy to Honolulu for the convocation which convenes in this city May 30. The same committee also will raise funds to bring from China Rev. Shim Yin Chin and his wife and daughters.

"BEWARE OF THIEVES
WARNING ON CHURCH

[By Latest Mail]

ST. LOUIS.—The following notice has been placed over the main entrance to St. Francis Xavier's (college) church, Grand avenue and Lindell boulevard, in the interior of the vestibule:

BEWARE OF THIEVES!
Do not leave articles of value in the pews. Take them with you into the confessional and to the altar railing.

A man who answered the telephone at the parochial residence told a reporter the sign was placed at the entrance to warn people against the possible presence of thieves or pickpockets. He said it was not placed there as the result of any recent robbery.

Mrs. William Grant, an expert scientific live stock breeder, and owner of a large ranch in California, was recently appointed assistant to Mr.
Daniel O. Lively, chief of the department of live stock of the Panama-Pacific International exposition, to be held in San Francisco in 1915.
